Message from Father Gonnella

As we come to the close of our Spring semester, I want to take the opportunity to congratulate all of our graduating seniors from the Newman Center. It has been a blessing to be able to walk with all of you over the past few years, and we wish you all the best. You are always welcome here at the Newman Center, and we hope to see you back here often. May the Lord bless you abundantly as you go out into the world to serve Him!

We are reminded in our Gospel this weekend that we live in the world that neither knows nor accepts the Holy Spirit. Yet we know Him because the Lord has chosen us as His own. This is a good opportunity for all of us to remember our call to bring the Spirit of Truth into the world around us. Our graduating students are doing this in a unique way at this moment in their lives, but all of us are continually called in the same way by our Lord. We have to be continuously diving into our relationship with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit so that we can bring that life of God into everything that we do. The Lord assures us that He will not leave us as orphans. Let us continue to live in the Father's love, so that as children of the light we can be shining witnesses to Jesus Christ in the darkness of the world.
